TVQ&A

Q. Could you tell me the top-rated television shows this season?—K.H.

A. Through the end of November, the top 10 audience-getting series as ranked by the A.C. Nielsen Company were these: 1. Dallas: 2. 60 Minutes; 3. Dukes of Hazzard; 4. NBC Tuesday Movies; 5. Love Boat; 6. Charlie's Angels; 7. Real People; 8. Little House on the Prairie; 9. Too Close for Comfort; 10. House Calls. Bear in mind that scheduling was very irregular during the first months of the season, and because many shows got a late start, this list is based on very few showings in some instances. So, later figures probably will produce some changes in the lineup, though clearly no series is going to oust Dallas from the No. 1 spot.

Q. We have a gripe. I believe I speak for all citizens who don't have 20-20 vision or are past 20 years of age. Your very small print used on your new style program listing is the pits. The size is comparable to the small print on gyp contracts and insurance policies. Can't your very youthful printer consider us old folks? We very probably comprise TV's biggest audience.—H.E.M.

A. There have been a number of complaints about the new type in the TV logs—which, believe it or not, is the same size as the old type, though the condensed form makes it appear smaller—and the problem is being taken very seriously. The difficulty is how to accommodate the new stations coming into the Metroplex without destroying the convenient horizontal log format that TV Star readers have appreciated for many years. There's no easy solution, but please be patient. Help is on the way.

Q. I'm a regular viewer of Charlie's Angels and I haven't seen it on the air lately. Could you tell me what the trouble is?—

A. The trouble is that you aren't looking in the right place. Charlie's Angels now airs Sundays at 7 p.m.

Q. What month, day and year did Dan Blocker die? Also, is Crystal Gayle the same person that used to be known as Judy Lynn?—J.I.

A. Dan Blocker died on May 13, 1972....Crystal Gayle and Judy Lynn are not the same person.

Q. When is Buck Rogers going to come on again?—C.M.

A. The season premiere of Buck Rogers is scheduled for Friday, Jan. 9, on NBC-Channel 5.

Send questions to TV Star, 400 W. 7th, Fort Worth 76102.

On the cover

Leslie Kim Kawai, an 18-year-old student at Pasadena College, is the 63rd queen of the Tournament of Roses and will reign over the traditional Pasadena parade New Year's Day—to be covered by both NBC and CBS starting at 10:30 a.m.—and the Rose Bowl football game between Michigan and Washington, to be telecast by NBC starting at 3:30 p.m.

JOHN RITTER of Three's Company romps through a segment demonstrating the magic of TV special effects on a new edition of ABC's Omnibus Sunday. The arts showcase also will feature Princess Grace reading poetry; Aretha Franklin and Big Mama Thornton singing the blues; a five-year-old violinist and the American Dance Machine.

Mating game

Lucie Arnaz, as a trouble-prone city lawyer at a birdwatching retreat, is pulled out of quicksand and into romance by Laurence Luckinbill (her real-life husband) in The Mating Season, a new TV movie comedy airing Tuesday on CBS.

Drama special

The prize-winning stage drama The Shadow Box comes to television in an ABC Theater presentation Sunday directed by Paul Newman. The focus is on three terminally ill people and those close to them. Pictured here are James Broderick with wife Valerie Harper and son Curtis Marlowe. The other patients are Christopher Plummer, whose wife is played by Joanne Woodward, and Sylvia Sidney.

New Year's Evenings

There will be special musical celebrations ringing in the new year on two networks late Wednesday. Barry Manilow, at left, will be guest star on Dick Clark's New Year's Rockin' Eve on ABC, and Paul Anka, at right, will be one of the featured performers on CBS' Happy New Year, America.
